CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY  INFORMATION REPORT CD NO.  DATE DISTR. 13 March 19  DATE DISTR. 14  DATE DISTR. 13 March 19  DATE DISTR. 14  DATE DISTR. 19  DATE DISTR. 13 March 19  DATE DISTR. 14  DATE DISTR. 19  DATE DISTR. 19  DATE DISTR. 13  DATE DISTR. 19  DATE DIST		CLASSIFICATION SHARE CONTINE		25X1
DUNITRY Korea/China/USSR  UBJECT 1. Chinese Communist Troops in Korea: Experience, Shortages, Korean Relations 2. Communist Adlitery Activities, Manchuria  ACE COUNTRY  ATE OF SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. OF PAGES 1. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. OF PAGES 1. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. OF ENGLS.  ACE COUNTRY NO. OF ENGLS.  ATE OF SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  The Chinese Communist forces in the Secul area in mid-February were composed of veterans of four to eix years of fighting.  The peace-time strength of a typical Chinese Communist Field army is 1,200,000° It is increased for combat.  25  27. The Chinese Communists in all areas of Korea are suffering from a shortage of feed and amountation because of the lack of transport and the supply is that tacks on bridges, roads, and railroads. The inadequate troop strength in Korean for the Chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korean from the Chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korean for the Chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korean for the Chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korean for the Chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korean for the Chinese Communist failure to increase and because of the anti-Chinese Communist stappoval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sic) North Korean army and Interior Police, and because of the anti-Chinese Communist failure on Interior Police, and because of the anti-Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antuny under Soviet army instructors.  A master of North Korean troops, including members of the Kok Volunteer Antuny, were scheduled to couplete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  * Comment. The figure is much too high the Change in Class. Supply April.  * Comment. The figure is much too high the Change in Class. Supply April.  * Comment. The figure is much too high the Change in Class. Supply April.		CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENTATIA	BERORT
DUNTRY Korea/China/USSR  UUSICT 1. Chinese Communist Troops in Korea: Experience, Shortages, Korean Relations 2. Communist Adlitary Activities, Manchuria  ANO. OF FACES  UUSICT 2. Communist Adlitary Activities, Manchuria  ANO. OF FACES  UUSIC COUNTRY  ATE OF FFO.  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  25  ATE OF FFO.  This is unevaluated in the Second area in mid-February were composed of veterans of four to six years of fighting  field army is 1,200,0000 In 1s increased for combat.  25  The Chinese Communists in all areas of Korea are suffering from a shortage of four and amounts of the land of transport and the lair attacks on bridges, roads, and railroads. The inadequate supply is the main reason for the Chinese Communists are knowlang and another flour.  3. The relations between the Chinese Communist disapproval of the trategor and because of the Chinese Communist disapproval of the Interior Police, and because of the Amount army and the Interior Police, and because of the Amount army and the Interior Police, and because of the Amount army and the Interior Police, and because of the Amount army and the Interior Police, and because of the Amount army and the Interior Police, and because of the Amount of Soviet army instructors.  A mumber of North Korean troops, including members of the RK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.      Comment. The figure is much too high selections of the RK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.      Comment. The figure is much too high selections of the RK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.                  		INFORMATION REPORT
UBJECT 1. Chinese Communist Troops in Korea: Experience, Shortages, Korean Relations 2. Communist allitary Activities, Manchuria 25  ATE OF SUPPLEMENTIC 25  THE OF SUPPLEMENTIC 25  THE Chinese Communist forces in the Seoul area in mid-February were composed of veterans of four to six years of fighting 25  The Chinese Communist is all areas of Korea are suffering from a chortage of food and amunition because of the lack of transport and the air attacks on bridges, roads, and realroads troop strength in Korea. The main food supplies received by the Chinese Communists are kaolian; and wheat flour.  3. The rolations between the Chinese Communist and North Koreans are not friendly because of the Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sic) North Korean are included one producing complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A factory in the area produces seven planes daily.  5. In late 1950 a number of Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antung under Soviet amy instructory.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including membors of the RKK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to couplete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including membors of the RKK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to couplete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including membors of the RKK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to couplete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including membors of the RKK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to couplete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including membors of the RKK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to couplete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.			CD NO.
Shortages, korean Relations 2. Communist additary Activities, Manchuria 2. Supplement in the Secularia and Manchuria 2. The Chinese Communist forces in the Secularea in mid-February were composed of veterans of four to six years of fighting 2. The Chinese Communists in all areas of Korea are suffering from a shortage of food and ammunition because of the lack of transport and the air attacks on bridges, roads, and ratifroads. The inadequate supply is the main reason for the Chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korea. The main food supplies received by the Chinese Communists are known between the Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sic) North Korean army and the Interior Folice, and because of the arti-Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sic) North Korean army and the Interior Folice, and because of the arti-Chinese feelings of nost Koreans.  4. By the end of 1950 factories in the Mukden area included one producing complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A factory in the area produces seven planes daily.  5. In late 1950 a mmber of Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antun; under Soviet army instructors.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including members of the RKK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to couplete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  8. Commont. The figure is much too high  8.	COUNT	RY Korea/China/USSR	DATE DISTR. 13	March 195
2. Communist additary Activities, Manchuria  2. Communist additary	SUBJEC	7 1. Chinese Communist Troops in Korea: Experience, Shortages, Korean Relations	NO. OF PAGES 1
ATE OF SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  1. The Chinese Communist forces in the Secul area in mid-February were composed of veterans of four to six years of fighting.  The peace-time strength of the strength of a typical Chinese Communist Field any is a manufacture of the strength of a typical Chinese Communist of food and amunition because of the lack of transport and the supply is the strength of the chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korea. The main food supplies received by the Chinese Communists are kooling; and wheat flour.  3. The relations between the Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sic) Morth Korean Army and the Interior Police, and because of the anti-Chinese feelings of most Koreans.  4. By the end of 1995 factories in the Bukden area included one producing complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A factory in the area produces severe planes daily.  5. In late 1950 a number of Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antung under Soviet army instructors.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including members of the RGK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean Front by early April.  Commont. The figure is much too high class. Changed Is: 15 $ 3 and 1 and 1 and 2 and 2 and 3 a	DI ACE	2. Communist Military Activities, Manchuria		25 X
The Chinese Communist forces in the Secul area in mid-February were composed of veterans of four to six years of fighting.  The peace-time strength of a typical Chinese Communist field army is 1,200,000 It is increased for combat.  25%  The Chinese Communists in all areas of Korea are suffering from a shortage of food and amunition because of the lack of transport and the lair attacks on bridges, roads, and railroads, The inadequate supply is the main reason for the Chinese Communist failure to increase Communists are known in Korea. The main food supplies received by the Chinese Communists are known and wheat flour.  3. The relations between the Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sic) North Korean Army and the Interior Folice, and because of the Chinese feelings of most Koreans.  4. By the end of 1950 factories in the Matchen area included one producing complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A factory in the area produces seven planes daily.  5. In late 1950 a number of Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antung under Soviet army instructors.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including members of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.              		ED	NO. OF ENCLS.
1. The Chinese Communist forces in the Seoul area in mid-February were composed of veterans of four to six years of fighting  The peace-time strength of a typical Chinese Communist field anny is 1,200,000°  2. The Chinese Communists in all areas of Korea are suffering from a shortage of food and ammunition because of the lack of transport and the supply is the main reason for the Chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korea. The main food supplies received by the Chinese Communists and North Koreans are not friendly because of the Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sto) North Korean Army and the Interior Police, and because of the anti-Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sto) North Korean Army and the Interior Police, and because of the anti-Chinese feelings of most Koreans.  4. By the end of 1950 factories in the Mukden area included one producing complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A factory in the area produces seven planes daily.  5. In late 1950 a number of Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antung under Soviet army instructors.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including members of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  7. Comment. The figure is much too high Belassing Class. Change It is 5. (CANNIEL MARK) A NORTH ARREST COMMENT AND		-	SUDDI EME
1. The Chinese Communist forces in the Secul area in mid-February were composed of veterans of four to six years of fighting    The posed of veterans of four to six years of fighting	NFO.			25
The peace-time strength of a typical Chinese Communist  field army is 1,200,000*  It is increased for combat.  250  2. The Chinese Communists in all areas of Korea are suffering from a shortage of food and ammunition because of the lack of transport and the air attacks on bridges, roads, and railroads. The inadequate supply is the main reason for the Chinese Communist failure to increase troop strength in Korea. The main food supplies received by the Chinese Communists are kaoliang and wheat flour.  3. The relations between the Chinese Communists and North Koreans are not friendly because of the Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sic) North Korean Army and the Interior Police, and because of the anti-Chinese feelings of most Koreans.  4. By the end of 1950 factories in the Mukden area included one producing complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A factory in the area produces seven planes daily.  5. In late 1950 a number of Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antung under Soviet army instructors.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including members of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  CLASSIFICATION SCRETT FIDENTIAL  ANTHER SCRETT FIDENTIAL  250  250  250  250  250  250  250  25	0. 5. C. 91	H9 82, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OF THE REVELATION		25. 25)
3. The relations between the Chinese Communists and North Koreans are not friendly because of the Chinese Communist disapproval of the treatment of civilians by the First (sic) North Korean Army and the Interior Police, and because of the anti-Chinese feelings of most Koreans.  4. By the end of 1950 factories in the Mukden area included one producing complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A factory in the area produces seven planes daily.  5. In late 1950 a number of Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antung under Soviet army instructors.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including members of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  7. Comment. The figure is much too high Class. Change in Class. Declassified Class. Change in Class. Change in Class. Change of the ROK Volunteer Army, where scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  8. Comment. The figure is much too high Class. Change in Class. Declassified Class. Change of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  8. Comment. The figure is much too high Class. Change in Class. Declassified Class. Change of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  8. Comment No. Declassified Class. Change of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  8. Comment No. Declassified Class. Change of the ROK Volunteer Army, was also and the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  8. Comment No. Declassified Class. Change of the ROK Volunteer Army, was also and the ROK Volunteer		The peace—time strength of a typical ( field army is 1,200,000*  The Chinese Communists in all areas of Korea are suff of food and ammunition because of the lack of transpo air attacks on bridges, roads, and railroads, supply is the main reason for the Chinese Communist.	Chinese Communist combat.  Cering from a shortage rt and the The inadequate	25X 25X 25X
Lo. By the end of 1950 factories in the Mukden area included one producing complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A factory in the area produces seven planes daily.  5. In late 1950 a number of Chinese Communist recruits were training at Antung under Soviet army instructors.  6. A number of North Korean troops, including members of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.    Comment. The figure is much too high  Classified  Class. Changed To: IS S C  Auth.: HR 10-2  Pate:	3.	The relations between the Chinese Communists and Nort friendly because of the Chinese Communist disapproval of civilians by the First (sic) North Korean Army and	h Koreans are not of the treatment
6. A number of North Korean troops, including members of the ROK Volunteer Army, were scheduled to complete training in Manchuria and be sent to the Korean front by early April.  25  * Comment. The figure is much too high.  * Comment. The figure is much too high.  * Classified Class. Changed Te: TS S COMMENT. HR 10-2  * CLASSIFICATION SCRETT FIDENTIAL   RANVY X NSRB		By the end of 1950 factories in the Mukden area included complete tanks, and another producing airplanes. A faproduces seven planes daily.	led one producing actory in the area	. 2
* Comment. The figure is much too high.  CLASSIFICATION SCRET FIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICATION SCRET 25	5.	In late 1950 a number of Chinese Communist recruits we Antung under Soviet army instructors.	ere training at
* Comment. The figure is much too high. He Change in Class. Declassified Class. Changed Te: TS S CONFIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICATION SECRET PROPERTIES  CLASSIFICATION SECRET PROPERTIE	6.		the ROK Volunteer and be sent to the	- 0E
CLASSIFICATION SECRET IDEIN A SECRET		Cli	Change in Class.  Declassified ass. Changed Te: TS S th.: HR 70-2	) <sup>2°</sup>
ATE X NAVY X NSRB  IMY X AIR X FBI		CLASSIFICATION SCREET NOTICE TO THE CLASSIFICATION SCREET NOTICE T	11 -07/04/18	y
	TATE RMY	X NAVY X NSRB		25
				25

Approved For Release 2009/03/09 : CIA-RDP82-00457R007200360007-3

-REVIEW
Approved For Release 2009/03/09 : CIA-RDP82-00457R007200360007-3